Dear Paula:

MRS. Roosevelt is having a birthday dinner for Missy on the 5th of September at the White House, and she wants very much to have you join in the celebration. Missy's birthday will be the 13th but Mrs. Roosevelt will be away on that date, so she is having the party a bit ahead of time.

Affectionately,

Dear Grace -

Mr. Sullivan must have done a slight job of hand truck.
I was sure I had had a gift marked for him & I wrote rushed if we had made a mistake.

I thought you would like to know everything is OK. -

Dear Mrs. Scheider:

Many thanks for your note of February 2nd.

I received my playing card holder, and treasure it highly.

I too enjoyed this year's party. It was unsurpassed.

Again thanking you, and with kind regards,

Yours very truly,

Dear Grace:

Here are the inventories. I hope the President will be able to find the things he is concerned about.

Mrs. Roosevelt expects you on Monday night for Harry's birthday dinner, and is counting on four from the big house—The President, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins and you. If there are more will you let me know?

Affec.

Dear Grace:

I called Miss H. about the 28th, but she had no reply. I imagine she is swamped with mail, etc. As soon as I hear, I will let you know.

The name of the publisher of the Secretary's Handbook is Methuen, Lee & Shepard Co.

419-421 4th Ave

N.Y. C.

I forgot the name of the book, so I must have lent my copy to someone as I can't find it.
In reference to the Acuen's idea of having Mrs. R. decide the issue— I hope George Bye gave you Mrs. R's complete message. She said she could not do it because she was completely prejudiced in your favor and would stand by you no matter what the Acuen's said. George did explain that it was Anne Hillis' idea entirely.

I see by the columnist Lyons that Mary Eshen is writing an article for Coronet about you.

Dear Grace:

As you know the government has finally taken over the house at Hyde Park and plans to open it to the public on April 12th when they unveil the stone.

There are still all of those papers in the President’s study and Elliott was asked to get them out as that room is still locked. Do you know what I should do with them? We could have them packed and stored at Mrs. Roosevelt’s cottage. Also I have a sealed package of the Yalta trip in a locked file at Hyde Park which some one may be looking for. If you want to go to Hyde Park about the papers, or rather feel that you have to, Mrs. Roosevelt’s cottage is open and Marie Morgan is there with her two children - you know her, Forbes' widow and she would be delighted to have you stay there and she can make you comfortable. The man we have should be back from his vacation by Monday and in any case Marie has a car and could drive you back and forth.

I am staying in New York having some general repairs, teeth, eyes, etc., but if you should plan to go up, I’d like to be there too and will try to go.

Mrs. R. writes that she is very busy - starting the day at 8 a.m. with a secretary whom she pays and dashing from one thing to another through the day and working at odd moments with a secretary from the UNO.

I think her columns have been excellent and Hugh Baillie cabled her his approval and congratulations.

She writes that she will serve for this session and for the next session which meets here in late April or early May and then no more. However, her appointment was so popular, she may be asked to continue.

I have been working steadily every day since she left, so I shudder to think of the accumulation we would have found had I been able to go.

Mary writes me that you weren't feeling well. I hope you are better. Perhaps a few days at Hyde Park would be a good change.

Affectionately,

Malvina.

Dear Grace:

I asked Elliot who has the key to the President's office to take out the letters etc. & put them where they will be safe for Mrs. F.

It is sad about Harry although he must have married up being sick so long.

My love to your mother

+ to you
