Mr. John W. Phele

Dear Sir:-

Have you read 'What I Believe',
by Solomon Asch?

It is his opinion that these are the times when the Messiah will appear.

I have an abundance of proof (not that I am the Messiah) that I fulfill Isiah's prophecy regarding the root of Jesse, thru whose agency permanent peace and brotherhood
would be established.

My story began in nineteen hundred and eight, and could will not have any alternative.

This letter may be passed around to individuals who do not become excited easily.

A mob of emotional Jews surrounding their offices and demanding news, could cause me more trouble than I would be able to cope with.

I will welcome any communications from you, or others,

Sin. yours

Miss Ethel Benjamin.

fill a good sized book.

I have been relating it, day by day, to Mr. A. Cahlan, editor of The Forward, Mr. S. Margoshes, editor of The Day, 153 E. Broadway, and Mr. J. Fishman, editor of The Jewish Daily News and Journal, 77 Bowery, all of New York City. I send them a personal letter on an average of four days a week.

If they are just about convinced I am speaking the truth, but haven't the courage to publish this news. However, if a sufficient number of prominent Jews demand that they do so, they
