To Pehle reply

Dear Mr. Pehle:-

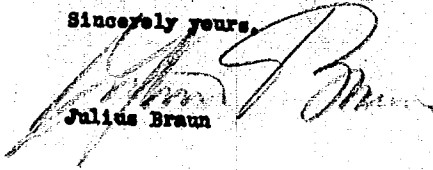

Let me say as simply as I can, though quite sincerely, that I consider this a privilege as well as a pleasure to meet with you two weeks ago on Sunday, in company with my friends and associates of the Emergency Committee to save Jews in Europe.

I was reminded of this visit Wednesday evening when, as treasurer, I met with the Board, and your name was brought up, and your work was discussed with considerable interest. It is gratifying to me, and it should be of some interest to you to know that this Sunday morning visit was very much worth while to us, considering the enthusiasm that it aroused, perhaps by reason of your personality and words of encouragement.

I hope that we will be able to renew acquaintanceship in the not too distant future, and meanwhile if there is anything further that I can do, or any of us can do, do not hesitate to command us.

Meanwhile more power to your good right arm!

Sincerely yours,

Julius Braun
