Dear Mr. Klineman:

I have your letter of July 6, 1944, requesting information concerning the scope of the work of Vaad Habatzala.

I suggest that you communicate with the President's War Relief Control Board, Washington
Building, 1435 "G" Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C., which may be in a position to give you the information you desire.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) J. W. Pehle

Dear Sir:

The writer has been solicited for contributions to the Vaad Hahatzola Emergency Committee to aid in the work of rescuing people from war areas.

If you have any information to indicate the scope of their work in this connection, or any other opinions which you would care to forward to me, I would appreciate same.

In view of the urgency of the request, an early reply will be appreciated.

Cordially yours,

Emery E. Klineman
