Dear Mr. Pehle:

Please find enclosed a set of documents which I should much appreciate being forwarded to:

Mr. Hartog LAMON,

They come from the Office of the Dutch Jewish Coordination Commission at Geneva (Director, Mr. M. H. Gans) and are for the information of Mr. Lamon, the correspondent in the United States of this organization, which has done valuable work in bringing assistance to and helping with the rescue of Dutch Jews in Holland and German-occupied territories. The documents consist of a brief report on their work and plans by Mr. Gans, and of several lists of Dutch Jewish deportees in such places as Bergen-Belsen, Birkenau and Theresienstadt.

Sincerely yours,

Roswell S. McClelland
