Dear Mrs. Mather:

Thank you for your letter of March 28, 1944. Your interest in the work of the War Refugee Board and your desire to be of assistance are indeed appreciated.

The War Refugee Board is engaged in one of the greatest humanitarian tasks of history. The President, in his Statement of March 24, 1944, has called upon all freedom-loving people to rally to this righteous undertaking in the name of justice and humanity.

Evidence of the concern of the people of the United States for the victims of enemy persecution brings great encouragement and facilitates our efforts to provide speedy and effective rescue programs. The Board welcomes every expression of public interest and support in this work.

Very truly yours,

J. W. Fehle
Executive Director

Mr John W. Pehley, Director War Refugee Board, Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Pehley, what can we, I just interested individuals or groups, do to help you get some immediate relief for those to save or rescue those poor Hungarian Jews. I understand your Board has organized to help rescue such people - will you please show me your public request help? or should we write the President or our own Congressman -

Many people care I would like to help but don't know what to do -

Very sincerely
