Dear Miss Revah:

I have your letter of March 27, 1944, requesting the assistance of the War Refugee Board in locating your family whose last known address was in Greece.

Everything in our power is being done to rescue and save the victims of enemy oppression who are in imminent danger of death. I think you will understand that the greatness of this task is such that the Board cannot deal with problems limited to seeking out specific individuals.

It is regretted that the Board is not in a position to assist you in locating your relatives. However, I suggest that it is possible that private organizations named in the enclosed list may be able to give you some help with this problem, and you may wish to communicate with one of them.

Very truly yours,

J. W. Fahle

Dear Sir:

I recently read in the papers of your newly formed board and was hoping if you possibly help me get in touch with my family in Europe. Until last year the Red Cross helped me communicate with my folks in Greece. Three months ago the Red Cross informed me that my family could not be located at the old address. If there is anything you can do there is no need to tell you how much I would appreciate it. Please let me know if you can possibly help me. Thanking you for your trouble

I remain,

Gratefully yours,
Stella Beval.
