CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D.C.

June 19, 1944.

Hon. Cordell Hull
Secretary of State
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Hull:

I am writing to you in the following matter and would be deeply grateful if some aid could be extended to Mrs. Klara Weissmann, residing at 1986 Creston Avenue, Bronx, New York, N. Y., in my district, as well as her daughter, Pauline Yaeger, who have come to me with regard to the possibility of having their husband and father, respectively, Josef Weissman, of Cosenza, Italy, brought here under the new program of the Free Port to be established by the United States.

Mr. Weissmann was born in Rumania and is now living in Cosenza, which has been freed by the Allies. His daughter is an American citizen. His wife is a legally admitted alien. They feel that in the selection of the people that are to be brought over here under the President's new policy, that it would be a wonderful godsend to them if their father were selected.

I am sure that you will do what you can.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

CHARLES A. BUCKLEY.
