Dear Sir:

I am very grateful for all that our government has done to rescue the victims of terror and mass murder in Europe but I want to urge that still more be done before it is too late.

Specifically, I would urge that everything possible be done to keep Talents open to the Jews in accordance with earlier commitments and that our own immigration laws be relaxed during this horrible emergency so that we may live up to our tradition as a haven for the persecuted.

yours very truly
M. Louis Hunt

Dear Sir:

I am very grateful for all that our government has done to rescue the victims of persecution and mass murder in Europe but I want to urge that still more be done before it is too late.

Specifically, I would urge that everything possible be done to reopen Palestine to the Jews and that our own immigration laws be relaxed so that we may live up to our tradition as a haven for the persecuted, during this horrible emergency.

Yours very truly

M. Louise Hunt
