Dear Miss Johnson:

I have your letter of March 31, 1944, expressing concern for the fate of the Jewish refugees in Europe.

Your interest in the problems with which the Board is confronted is greatly appreciated. I assure you that every effort will be made to achieve the humanitarian objectives which prompted the formation of the Board.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

I write concerning the persecution of over three million Jews in Europe. As Director of the Near Refugee Board you are, no doubt, well aware of the starvation and executions now being carried out in Europe.

You better than I, I am sure, know the value that temporary visas and the privilege of temporary asylum would have in alleviating this present situation I trust that you will do all in your power to bring relief to the ill-fated Jews in Europe.

Sincerely yours,
Francis J. Brown
