Your interest in the problems with which the Board is confronted is greatly appreciated. I assure you that every effort will be made to achieve the humanitarian objectives which prompted the formation of the Board.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

I am writing concerning the plight which over 800,000 refugees now find themselves in Hungary following the events of the past week, and to beg that your Board will see to it that no stone is left unturned in saving these people from the torture now lying before them.

In a day when the altruism of 1941 seems to be fast fading, it is my sincere hope that there are still a few who have compassion for the sufferings of others.

Sincerely yours,
Olgea Jamison Brown
