ISOLATION? No. The world is growing relatively smaller each day and we have a right to view with concern what is happening in other nations.

COLLABORATION? Yes. For in friendly co-operation we can help to adjust many matters without recourse to force.

ALLIANCES? Yes. When proper Congressional power ratifies such action.

Some people are so saturated with self that the spelling of HUMANITY is unknown; but until you place this first on your list we can expect no advancement to a better understanding in world affairs.

The cause of Humanity depends entirely on how I treat you and you treat me, two human beings. Every thing else is secondary.
