TO J. W. Pehle

FROM A. Laughlin

I have the following information on Father Morris Sheehy:

Father Morris Sheehy was a member of the staff of the Catholic University here until he entered the Navy as a chaplain. He joined the Navy before we entered the war. He was last in Washington at Christmas time and is now on a island in the south Pacific.

From three sources I find that he is exceedingly well liked, quite liberal in his thinking and an all-around fine fellow.
