Dear Mr. Baranov:

Thank you for your letter of April 6, 1945, concerning your community meeting scheduled for May 6.

At the time I was asked by the Joint Distribution Committee to deliver an address before your meeting, I had hoped that circumstances would permit me to be in San Diego on that date. It is with much regret that I now find that, because of the pressure of business in Washington, it will not be possible for me to be there on May 6.

I am sincerely sorry that I shall be unable to address your meeting and want to take this opportunity to wish you all success in your coming campaign.

Very truly yours,

~~(Signed) William O'Dwyer~~
