THE FOLLOWING CABLE FROM HIRSCHMANN FOR WRB.

Reference is made to Department's cable of March 13, 1944

You are informed that pictures of evacuated refugees coming from the Balkans through Orinto, Turkey, are not available in Ankara to me. They could only be obtained, after some delay, in Istanbul and would require almost a month for transmission to Washington. Please advise, notwithstanding the foregoing delay, whether they are desired.

See my telegram of February 26, no. 345. I desire, in connection with the Board's request for such photographs for use in an article being prepared for VICTORY MAGAZINE, to again caution the Board against publicity in the United States at this time regarding our efforts here. These refugees are not regarded by the Turk authorities as Jews but as Rumanians and Bulgarians who may tomorrow be their enemies and among whom they assert Axis spies and agents have been and may readily be planted. In view of this attitude by the Turk authorities, their cooperation which the Ambassador has now succeeded in obtaining would easily be lost to us by premature publicity in the United States. I will so advise you as soon as the Ambassador and I feel that publicity in the United States praising the Turk Government or publicizing the extent of its cooperation will not do more harm to our efforts than good.
