Dear Mr. Wisler:

I have your letter of February 18, 1944, concerning the new War Refugee Board, and I appreciate your interest in our program.

While the Board is working with established private organizations dealing with relief and refugee problems, it is not encouraging or prompting the formation of new private organizations or committees.

Your offer of service is, of course, greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) J. W. Pehle
