Dear Uncle Fred:

Thank you so much for sending me Mrs. Herrick's letter.

We were so sorry you could not come to the picnic on Saturday. It all went very nicely, but we missed you.

Affectionately,

My dear Lawrence:

Thank you very much for taking the trouble to help Mr. Anderson. I thought his wife's letter sounded quite desperate.

Many thanks for the good wishes you and Laura send. We are looking forward to seeing you often in Washington in the next few years.

Affectionately,

Dear Lawrence:

Thank you so much for your letter about Eleanor Spaeth. It is surely very kind of you to take an interest in this matter and I will be deeply grateful for whatever you can do.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Lawrence:

Dr. Joshi did not call until Tuesday and I was just about to leave for New York City. I am terribly sorry I did not have a chance to talk with him.

I hope to see you and Laura during the summer.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Laurence:

Would you care to forward this note to this young lady. It was very thoughtful of you to send it to me. These are just the things I like to hear about my book.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Lawrence:

I am more than sorry that I will not be able to attend the mass meeting to be held at the Chicago Stadium in the interest of Polish relief on February 10. I deeply appreciate your writing me about this occasion but, unfortunately, engagements here prevent my accepting the invitation.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Lawrence:

Thank you so much for the trouble you have taken in seeing Mrs. Noyes. I appreciate your doing this very much indeed and have written Mrs. Noyes that I would be glad to give her plan whatever consideration I can.

Cordially,

Dear Lawrence:

Your very heartening letter has just come to my attention, and I am sorry for the delay in answering it.

I know what Franklin meant to you and I also know how much he counted on your support and encouragement.

The letters and messages I have received from people all over the world are very touching, and I am particularly surprised to hear from people who opposed Franklin completely, express their feeling that a very strong prop is gone. I only hope that we will all work to achieve the objectives for which Franklin worked.

With my love to you and Laura,

Affectionately,

Dear Lawrence:

It was very kind of you and Laura to send me a message of sympathy about my brother and I appreciate it so much. I am grateful, too, to Laura for coming to the services.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Lawrence:

Thank you for your letter about Helen Poland. I am sorry that I have had to cancel the Bryn Mawr engagement because I am going to San Francisco with Franklin.

I have offered them a later date and if and when I do go, I will keep Miss Poland in mind.

Sincerely,

My dear Mr. Houghteling:

I will be glad to see Mr. Goodman and can do so at 12:00 noon on Monday, April 2. My office has called him and he has confirmed the appointment.

Thank you so much for bringing the matter to my attention.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Laura:

Thank you so much for your sweet letter.

I had to refuse the Red Cross invitation as I had several engagements already made here.

I would love to stay with you, so may I come some other time?

Affectionately,

Dear Laura:

Many, many thanks for acting so promptly on the case of the Wilcoxon's. Her letter did appeal to me and sounded genuine, and I felt they deserved a little help. I am glad they were able to make it alone.

Dear Laura:

I do not seem to have time, the first time I come to Chicago, to see you, but I wonder if you and Lawrence will be free on Monday, November 16, at lunch time and if you would both come to lunch with me at the Hotel Stevens? I could come to you if it is more convenient.

I am leaving tomorrow for this lecture trip, but any letter sent to me at the White House will be forwarded, or you can leave word at the hotel.

Affectionately,

Dear Laura:

I am sorry to be so long in answering your very kind letter but the great volume of mail which came to me after Franklin's death has made it impossible to be very prompt.

I am sure that Franklin's death must have been a personal loss to you as I know how much you thought of him. Your contribution to the United Negro College Fund would have pleased him greatly and you couldn't have done anything that would have been more of a real tribute to him.

Affectionately,

Dear Eleanor:

I am glad to receive your letter of February 10th enclosing a letter from Eleanor Spaeth of Chicago about her family problems. I notice that Miss Spaeth gives Federal Judge William H. Holly as a reference. I happen to be in close touch with Judge Holly, as he is using me as a special advisor in an important case before him. I can undoubtedly get from him some idea as to how Miss Spaeth's problem can be handled. I doubt if it will be necessary to burden your well-occupied time further with this matter.

Yours sincerely,
