PAPERS OF MORRIS L. COOKE, 1910-1954

Description of Material: This Group (12 1/4 feet) contains the manuscript and other materials assembled by Morris Llewellyn Cooke, consulting engineer in management, who climaxed a life of public service by his work under Presidents Roosevelt and Truman as Rural Electrification Administrator and as Chairman of the Water Resources Policy Commission. These papers, which outline the public and private life of Mr. Cooke from the early 1900's to 1954, include materials on his professional engineering work; the rate case against the Philadelphia Electric Company, 1914-15; correspondence as Director of Public Works for Philadelphia, 1911-15; papers as Director of the Giant Power Survey in Pennsylvania, 1923; correspondence as Trustee of the Power Authority of the State of New York, 1928-33; papers as a member of the President's Committee on the Costs of Medical Care, 1930; papers as Chairman of the Mississippi Valley Committee of the Public Works Administration, 1933; papers as Director, Water Resources Section, National Resources Board, 1934; papers as first Administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration, 1935-37; papers as organizer of the Third World Power Conference in Washington, 1936; correspondence as Chairman of the Great Plains Committee, 1936-37; papers as head of the U.S. Technical Mission to Brazil, 1942; papers as a member of the Committee to Survey the Patent System, 1946-47; papers as Chairman of the President's Water Resources Policy Commission, 1950-51; materials on the innumerable writings of Cooke in the form of pamphlets, magazine articles and books; and general correspondence and related printed materials for the period 1910-54.

323 boxes, 7 volumes, 1 wooden box.

A. General Correspondence, Numerical File, Ref, 1910-1929.

In this correspondence file relating to engineering matters, business problems, personnel matters, official and personal problems, the papers are arranged into numbered, subject files, arranged alphabetically. There are present incoming and outgoing letters on public hearings pertaining to electrification and power, comparative data on electric rates and consumption, engineering management problems, solutions for unemployment, international barter, the use of ultra-violet light to treat milk, union-management cooperation in the railway industry, science in industry and use of scientific management, cost systems for public utilities, policies and practices of professional engineering associations, the shift of industry to the 8-hour day and the 3-shift system, and other engineering and industrial problems. Included in the file is correspondence with the American Society of Mechanical Engineers on matters of policy; the Public Service Commission of Pennsylvania on public utilities; representatives of the coal industry to promote labor peace; manufacturers and union officials regarding his work as Chairman of the Board of Referees of the Ladies Garment Industry; Edward W. Bemis, consulting engineer of Chicago, on utility rates; Justice Louis D. Brandeis on unemployment and wage scales; Newton D. Baker on various legal matters; E. W. Clark, Treasurer of the Taylor Society regarding Society policy; Frank B. Copley concerning a biography of Frederick Winslow Taylor; Judson Dickerman of the Public Service Commission of Pennsylvania on gas and electric rates; H. W. Dodds, editor of the National Municipal Review, on utilities; Joseph B. Eastman on problems of the Interstate Commerce Commission; Felix Frankfurter, Harvard Law School, on utilities; Sidney Hillman, President of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, on labor problems; Henry P. Kendall of Kendall Mills on management problems; Milo R. Maltbie, public utility consultant, concerning utility cases involving rates, dividends, and stocks; George W. Norris, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia; Senator George W. Pepper discussing opposition to the appointment of Pierce Butler to the U.S. Supreme Court; Calvin W. Rice, Secretary, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, on policies and procedures of the Society; Ida M. Tarbell, writer; directors of the Germantown (Pa.) Hospital regarding hospital costs and expansion; Bruce Bliven, George Soule, editors of the New Republic on publication of articles; American Institute of Architects, American Society of Electrical Engineers, and the Federated American Engineering Societies on policies and procedures; F. A. Gaby, Chief Engineer, Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, Canada, on Canadian developments; or Gifford Pinchot, Governor of Pennsylvania, regarding the Giant Power Survey, utilities, and power commissions; Prof. Charles E. Merriam, Univ. of Chicago, on public regulation of utilities; Judson King, Director, National Popular Government League, on municipal electric rates and Congressional legislation; Mrs. F. C. Bursch, League of Women Voters, on increased consumption of electricity in the home; and Harry A. Slattery, Director, National Boulder Dam Association, on urging construction of the dam. There is additional correspondence containing revisions of proposed speeches and articles for publication; Cook's solicitation of work as consulting engineer; assistance to friends and associates to improve their business connections; and personal correspondence of Cooke relating to his home, insurance and other private matters. Copies of hearings and rulings made by the Impartial Chairman of the Garment Industry in Cleveland, 1921-26, are among the papers. 51 boxes.

B. General Correspondence, Numerical File, Black, 1920-1935.

This correspondence file is arranged in the same manner as the "Red" file preceding it and appears to be a chronological continuation of it. The engineering, business, professional, official, and personal matters treated are similar. Among the files is found correspondence with the American Society of Mechanical Engineers regarding meetings and presentation of papers; Franklin D. Roosevelt, Louis McHenry Howe, Stephen Early, and other White House personalities on the subjects of utilities and electric power; Robert W. Bruère of the J. C. Penny Foundation concerning grants of money; David Lilienthal, TVA Director, on TVA plans for expansion and development and the selection of socially-minded engineers for TVA; Donald Richberg, General Counsel, NRA, regarding an electrical code; Justice Louis D. Brandeis on business ethics and railroad rates; Harold W. Dodds, National Municipal Review, submitting articles and suggestions for topics; Joseph B. Eastman, Federal Coordinator of Transportation; Felix Frankfurter, Harvard Law School, on TVA and giant power; Milo R. Maltbie, Chairman, New York Public Service Commission concerning electric rates charged by companies in New York state; Senator Joseph F. Guffey on appointments in Pennsylvania; Lewis N. Clark, Director, The Germantown Hospital, regarding management of the hospital (Cooke was on the Board of Managers);
Frank Aydelotte, President, Swarthmore College, on an unemployment study undertaken by the college and run by Paul H. Douglas; Florence C. Thorne, Executive Council, A.F. of L., regarding scientific management in union activities; Herbert Hoover, as Secretary of Commerce and as President; Gifford Pinchot on utilities and other public matters; Henry L. Stimson on appointments in the government; Senator George W. Norris on public ownership of utilities; Senator James Couzens, chairman of the Committee on Interstate Commerce, concerning the power and regulation of utilities; Besse Howard, Director, Pennsylvania Branch, League of Nations Association (Cooke was President of this Branch in 1935); and with Basil Manly, Vice Chairman, Federal Power Commission, on the technical problems of computing electrical costs. In this file is correspondence with officials of the State Planning Commission of the Council of People's Commissars of the U.S.S.R. regarding economic cooperation in the period following the recognition of Russia. Cooke's visit to the Soviet Union in 1929 is recalled in correspondence relating to it. There is correspondence relating to Gifford Pinchot's campaign for Governor of Pennsylvania in 1930, when Cooke served as Chairman of the Citizens Committee–Pinchot for Governor. Also available is the correspondence of Cooke, Jacob H. Hollander, and John R. McLane who served as the Board of Referees of the Ladies Garment Industry of Cleveland, 1926-31. A business venture is reflected in the correspondence with Irving Bonbright concerning their investment in the Hugh Archbald process of treating coal and coke. His professional interests are shown in his correspondence with officials of the Taylor Society regarding policies, programs, and possible mergers with other engineering societies. Other papers concern business accounts and personal matters. 57 boxes.
C. General Correspondence, Special Alphabetical File, 1925-1930.

These papers constitute a file of general correspondence with various individuals on professional, business, and personal matters. The folders, one to an individual, are arranged alphabetically. During these years, Cooke corresponded with Frank Aydelotte, President of Swarthmore College; A. Lincoln Acker, Collector of Customs, Philadelphia; Beulah Amidon, Associate Editor, The Survey; H. H. Broach, President, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; Francis Biddle, Chairman, Foreign Policy Association; Bernard M. Baruch, advisor to Presidents; Congressman J. D. Beck of Wisconsin; Prof. Edward Bennett, Department of Electrical Engineering, University of Wisconsin; Robert P. Bass, Governor of New Hampshire; General Smedley D. Butler; Senator James Couzens; Dale Carnegie, writer; Paul S. Clapp, Managing Director, National Electric Light Association; Stuart Chase, writer; Paul H. Douglas, School of Commerce, Univ. of Chicago; Dr. Glenn Frank, President, Univ. of Wisconsin; A. Gustew, Director of the Central Institute of Work, Moscow, Russia; Hamilton Holt, President, Rollins College, Florida; Ira N. Hollis, President, Worcester Polytechnic Institute; Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State; Joseph S. Ames, President, John Hopkins Univ.; Morris Sigman, President, Intern. Ladies Garment Workers Union; Senator Hiram Johnson; L. H. Kinnard, President, Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania; Judson King, Director, National Popular Government League; Senator Robert M. LaFollette; Henry R. Mussey, Managing Editor, The Nation; Robert Moses, New York State Council of Parks; Leifur Magnusson, Director, Washington Branch, International Labor Office; Senator W. Norris; James P. Noonan, International President, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; C. Russ Richards, President, Lehigh University; Prof. Joseph W. Roe, Dept. of Industrial Engineering, N.Y.U.; Donald Richberg, Chicago attorney; Franklin D. Roosevelt, Governor of New York; Prof. S. Parker Smith, Royal Technical College, Glasgow, Scotland; Ellery Sedgwick, Editor, Atlantic Monthly; George Soule, Editor, New Republic; J. David Stern, publisher, Camden (N.J.) Evening Courier; J. M. Thomas, President, Pennsylvania State College; Senator Thomas J. Walsh; William H. Williams, Chairman of the Board, Missouri Pacific Railroad; and Dr. Ing. E. Zimmler, President, Masaryk Academy, Prague, Czechoslovakia. 20 boxes.

D. General Correspondence, 1930-1932. This is a file of general correspondence in alphabetically-arranged folders of the same type of correspondence as that preceding it. Matters under discussion include arrangements for scientific meetings, publications of engineering companies, discussion of the relative merits of private and public ownership of electric utilities, comparison of power rates in different cities, correspondence with congressmen regarding abuses in utility rates, drafting of legislation, publication of scientific books, intervention or mediation in industrial disputes, analyses of products rated by Consumers Research organization, and plans for meetings and work of the Taylor Society. The more personal correspondence includes requests for charitable contributions, interviews, dinner invitations, organizational invitations, personal recommendations, family problems, vacations, and illnesses. Among the correspondents are Senator Robert LaFollette, Harold J. Laski, Frances Perkins, Robert Moses, Senator George Norris, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, Senator David Reed, and Thorstein Veblen. 2 boxes.

E. General Correspondence, 1932-1933. This file is of the same type and is arranged the same way as the preceding one. Among Cook's correspondents are H. P. Charlesworth, President, American Institute of Electrical Engineers; Robert C. Clothier, President, Rutgers Univ.; Senator Edward P. Costigan; Stuart Chase; Prof. Paul H. Douglas; Sidney Hillman; Harold L. Ickes; General Hugh Johnson; Walter Lippman; Frank R. McNinch, Federal Power Commissioner; John G. Winant, Governor of New Hampshire; and Owen D. Young of the General Electric Company. 6 boxes.

F. General Correspondence, Special Alphabetical File, 1933-1935.

These papers are general correspondence similar to the preceding files containing business and personal letters intermingled. Some of the correspondents are Francis Biddle, National Labor Relations Board; Charles A. Beard, historian; Henry Bruere, President, Bowery Savings Bank; James C. Bohbright, fellow member of the Power Authority of the State of New York; Jonathan Daniels, editor, Raleigh (N.C.) News and Observer; Josephus Daniels, Ambassador to Mexico; Harold E. Dods, President, Princeton Univ.; George H. Dern, Secretary of War; Thomas S. Gates, President, Univ. of Pennsylvania; C. E. Groesbeck, Chairman, Electric Bond and Share Co.; Col. Louis McHenry Howe, White House advisor; Sidney Hillman, labor leader; Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of Interior; Stanley King, President, Amherst College; Herbert H. Lehman, Governor of New York; Leland Olds, Secretary, Power Authority, State of New York; Sam Rayburn, Speaker, House of Representatives; Robert I. Randolph, President, The Mississippi Valley Association; William C. Bullitt, Department of State; Senator Henrik Shipstead; Rexford G. Tugwell, Asst. Secretary of Agriculture; and Frank P. Walsh, Chairman, Power Authority, State of New York. 6 boxes.
G. General Correspondence, 1936-1945. This is another general correspondence file arranged alphabetically under topics and persons. Among the subjects on which files are maintained are: air cargo, forestry, "Friends of the Land", municipal problems, adult education, soil conservation, national planning, broadening the education of engineers, group health plans, and stream pollution. Correspondents include Ray Stannard Baker, writer; Bernard M. Baruch; Otto S. Beyer, National Mediation Board; Hugh S. Bennett, Soil Conservation Service; Francis Biddle, Solicitor General; Justice Louis D. Brandeis; Robert W. Bruce, Chairman, Maritime Labor Board; John Carmody, Rural Electrification Administrator; Harold Dodds, President, Princeton Univ.; Robert E. Doherty, President, Carnegie Institute; Sidney Hillman, Office of Production Management; Harry Hopkins, Secretary of Commerce; Isador Lubin, Labor Department; Sumner T. Pike, Commissioner, Securities and Exchange Commission; Justice Owen J. Roberts; Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt; President Franklin D. Roosevelt; Samuel I. Rosenman, advisor to F.D.R.; Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture; and Claude R. Wickard, Rural Electrification Administrator.

14 boxes.

H. General Correspondence, 1951-1954. This is the most recent of Cooke's general correspondence and is arranged alphabetically by subject folders. Some of the topics with which Cooke was concerned were conservation problems; educational programs; the "off-shore" oil issue; a national water resources policy; gifts to the President and other public officials; the "Point Four" program; Delaware River watershed project; the Tennessee River and Columbia River power and irrigation problems; and other policies of President Eisenhower's administration. There is present technical and professional correspondence with old associates, correspondence with the American Civil Liberties Union (Cooke was on the National Committee), and correspondence with the Public Affairs Institute of which he was a sponsor. His correspondents include James C. Bonbright; Louis Bromfield, writer; Bruce Bliven, editor, New Republic; Ezra Taft Benson, Secretary of Agriculture; George S. Counts, educator; Thomas G. Corcoran, lawyer and economist; Oscar Chapman, Secretary of the Interior; Jonathan Daniels; Leland Olds; Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney; Elmo Roper, public opinion expert; Beardsley Ruml, economist; Drew Pearson, columnist; Walter F. Reuther, President, C.I.O.; and President Harry S. Truman. 7 boxes.

I. Special File, 1910-1924. This is a file of more specialized correspondence, covering the years 1910-1924 in general but including occasional items as early as 1904 and as late as 1940. In this file is correspondence with Rudolph Blankenburg, Mayor of Philadelphia, when Cooke was the Director of the Department of Public Works, 1911-15; correspondence with members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers; correspondence relating to Prof. George F. Swain and his valuation work for several railroads, 1910-18; correspondence regarding the Philadelphia Transit Advisory Board on which Cooke served in 1923; materials in connection with the Pennsylvania State Board for Registration of Engineers; general matters of the Philadelphia Department of Public Works; discussion of the Horace B. Drury report on the Steel Strike of 1920; correspondence on the 3-shift system for industry as discussed in a joint meeting of the Taylor Society, A.S.M.E., and A.I.E.E.; copies of publications of M. Le Chatelier, in French, on the subject of Taylorism; and correspondence with Calvin Rice, Secretary, A.S.M.E., about the World Power Conference in London, 1924. Also present are letters from such prominent persons as Herbert Hoover, Josephus Daniels, and Franklin D. Roosevelt and many letters dealing with Cooke's personal affairs.

18 boxes.

This file consists of the bound volumes of testimony in the rate case which Cooke contested against the Philadelphia Electric Company. There are 8,260 pages of testimony. 2 boxes.

K. Giant Power Survey Papers, 1924-25. This file contains the correspondence carried on by Cooke during the years in which he gathered material on the feasibility of giant power in Pennsylvania. In this file are found correspondence with Wm. D.B. Ainy, Chairman, Public Service Commission of Pennsylvania, concerning replies by utility companies to a questionnaire sent out by the P.S.C.; technical material relating to industrial processes for producing power using coal and by-products; correspondence with Judson C. Dickerman, Assistant Director of the survey, on developments, experiments, tests, and data; correspondence with technical experts, college teachers, scientists, public servants, and company officials on values and needs of giant power; folders of material on power, coal, power development, farm electrification, electrical engineers, Federal Water Power Commission, Hoover Super Power Commission, Giant Power maps, giant power publicity, power rates, power transmission, and other matters; and proposed legislation on giant power. In addition, there is correspondence with Robert W. Bruere about an article on Giant Power in The Survey; correspondence with the Farm Journal to get publicity.
for the program of electricity on the farm; efforts to obtain a reference library for the giant power survey; copies of the report of the Giant Power Survey Board; a draft of the message of Governor Pinchot transmitting the report to the General Assembly of Pennsylvania; requests for copies of the report by public and private groups; mailing lists for copies of the report; contributions to the giant power issue of the Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science (March 1925); copies of anti-giant power literature; literature on the application of electricity to agriculture; literature on state compacts to control electric power; a bibliography on giant power; and news clippings about the giant power report. Among the correspondents are Ray Stannard Baker, Felix Frankfurter, Frederick A. Gaby, Arthur E. Morgan, Milo R. Maltbie, George W. Norris, Otto M. Rau, and Henry L. Stimson. 26 boxes.

L. Special File, 1925-1933. This is another file of more specialized correspondence, one in continuation of the 1910-24 file. It includes some material as early as 1918 and as late as 1935 under its topical folders. In it are materials relating to Cooke's correspondence as Chairman of the Practice Committee of the American Association of Engineers, including some case histories; materials on the Cleveland Clothing Workers Investigation, 1931; materials on meetings held to attempt stabilization of the coal industry; correspondence and office accounts of the Mason Alfalfa Process Company in which Cooke was on the Board of Directors and one of the principal stockholders, 1928-35; material on legislation relating to municipal power plants; correspondence on rate-making in the electrical industry; materials on the cost of installation of rural electrification; correspondence relating to the promotion of low rural power rates in New Jersey; material on "watered" stock; materials on street improvements submitted by various municipalities; correspondence on the proposed development of St. Lawrence water power by New York State; correspondence with Governor Gifford Pinchot (Pa.) on the subjects of electric rates, giant power, and the Public Service Commission; copies of Cooke's article, "Can We Move It?" (1918); an article for Consumers Research, Inc., on the cost of electricity (1932); and numerous newspaper clippings. Among the personal papers are accounts relating to his home, vacation materials, and Christmas cards. 33 boxes.

M. Papers Relating to the President's Committee on Costs of Medical Care, 1930. This file contains material collected from several group medical plans and the final report of the Committee on Costs of Medical Care. 1 box.

N. New York State Power Authority Papers, 1931-1933. This material is arranged alphabetically under subject and name folders. Included in this material is correspondence with utility companies on distribution of electricity costs; copies of federal and state legislation on water power; materials on anti-social policies practiced by privately-owned utilities; miscellaneous reports on various utility companies in the United States; engineering memoranda by Judson Dickerman, Otto M. Rau, and Clayton W. Pike; and news clippings about the Power Authority. Frank P. Walsh served as Chairman of the Authority - Delos M. Cosgrove as Vice-Chairman and James C. Bonbright as Secretary. Cooke's correspondence includes letters exchanged with Walsh; correspondence with Bonbright regarding the personnel of the Federal Power Commission; correspondence with Cosgrove concerning the effect on New York ports of the St. Lawrence Waterway; minutes of meetings of the Power Authority, 1931, 1933; copies of the First and Second Annual Reports of the Authority for the years ending December 31, 1931 and 1932; materials and correspondence relating to a conference on utility regulation held in New York, April 1932; and correspondence and other materials on a meeting of the Institute of Public Engineering on the subject of "Electrical Distribution Costs" held in New York, January 30, 1933. There are present several articles by Cooke: "Quaint Electric Rates," in National Municipal Review, Vol. XIX, No. 11, November 1930; "Planning for Power," in The Nation, Vol. 134, No. 3491, June 1, 1932; "Paying Too Much for Electricity," in New Republic, December 21, 1932; "Light and Power - Planning the Electrical Future," (place and date of publication unknown); and two pamphlets, "What Price Electricity For Our Homes," and "On the Cost of Distribution of Electricity to Domestic Consumers." 16 boxes.

O. Mississippi Valley Committee Papers, 1933-1934. The purpose of the Mississippi Valley Committee, of which Cooke served as Chairman in 1933, was to review projects for the Public Works Administration coming within the drainage area of the Mississippi River and to report a plan for the future development of this region. These papers include discussions of agriculture in the Mississippi Valley; literature on soil erosion; material on the Tennessee Valley Authority; material on a federal power study; and various memoranda from Cooke to the Committee. Among the correspondents are Major Carey H. Brown, Secretary, M.V.C.; Professor Harlan H. Barrows, Univ. of Chicago; Donald L. Bower, Asst. Secretary, M.V.C.; H. H. Bennett, Director, Soil Conservation Service; Thomas S. Baker, President, Carnegie Institute of Technology; Glenn Frank, President, Univ. of Wisconsin; Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of Interior; and Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture. 6 boxes.

P. Water Resources Section, National Resources Board Papers, 1934. Cooke served as Director of the Water Resources Section in 1934. These papers are concerned with plans of the Mississippi Valley Authority (proposed) and the T.V.A.; correspondence on the use of water resources, irrigation, flood control and related matters; correspondence with engineering professors about technical papers and meetings; correspondence with other government officials on rural electrification; and correspondence with President Roosevelt on the subjects of holding companies and rural electrification. Other correspondents were H. H. Bennett, Director, Soil Conservation Service; David E. Lilienthal, Director, T.V.A.; Josephus Daniels, Ambassador to Mexico; J. David Stern, publisher, Philadelphia Record, Camden Evening Courier, and New York Post; and Frank P. Walsh, Chairman, Power Authority of New York. The segment of papers dealing with inland waterways contains reports on suggested changes in inland waterways; drafts of the Mississippi Valley Committee report and memoranda used in its composition; copies of the M.V.C. report on a National Inland Waterway Policy and comments thereon by various experts, articles and reports on the Missouri and Ohio valleys; and technical reports on evaporation, ground water, erosion, and rainfall. 6 boxes.

Q. Washington Special File, 1935. This is a topical file, alphabetically arranged, which was compiled by Cooke in Washington. It Contains Bureau of Reclamation material on dams; correspondence of Cooke as Chairman, Water Planning Committee, N.R.B.; newspaper clippings on the M.V.C. project and report; press releases on the T.V.A.; U.S. geological Survey maps of the Tennessee valley states; correspondence with Joel D. Wolfohn, Executive Secretary, National Power Policy Committee, on which committee Cooke served, as Vice Chairman, along with Harold Ickes, David Lilienthal, General Ed Markham, Frank McNinch, and others; and a copy of Cooke's speech, "On Water Planning For the Nation," before the 55th annual convention of the American Water Works Association, May 7, 1935. 2 boxes.

R. Third World Power Conference Papers, 1936. The Third World Power Conference, a meeting of scientists and industrialists from all over the world, met in Washington, September 7-11, 1936. Cooke helped organize and further the conference in addition to serving as Chairman of the Executive Committee of the American National Committee of the Conference. The papers contain Cooke's correspondence with U.S. and foreign scientists and industrialists regarding participation and arrangements; schedules of publicity on the radio and in the press for months preceding the conference; lists of speakers and topics for the conferences; proposed manuscripts and discussions of revisions; materials on a transcontinental inspection trip undertaken by the delegates; arrangements for the group to visit Mount Vernon; and arrangements to visit industrial plants for demonstrations. Cooke's correspondents this year included Charles Appleton, Vice-President, General Electric Company; Floyd Carlisle, Chairman of the Board, Consolidated Edison Company; Stuart Chase; Frederic A. Delano, National Resources Board; Judson Dickerman, Federal Trade Commission; Howard Ehrlich, United Press; McGraw-Hill Publishing Company; Felix Frankfurter, Harvard Law School; Harold Ickes, Chairman, American National Committee, 3rd World Power Conference; David E. Lilienthal, Director, T.V.A.; William McCallan, President, Potomac Electric Power Company; and Lewis Mumford, writer. 6 boxes.
S. Papers as Chief of the United States Technical Mission to Brazil, 1942. Cooke went to Brazil with a group of Americans in the hope of improving Brazilian industrial techniques and adding to Brazil's war potential. This file contains correspondence on Cooke's book on Brazil entitled, "Brazil On the March," published by McGraw-Hill, 1944. 1 box.

T. Patent Survey Committee Papers, 1946-1947. This file contains correspondence relating to the work of the Patent Survey Committee on which Cooke served and of which William H. Davis was chairman, during the years 1947 to 1951. Some of the papers relate to a proposed National Science Foundation, 1946, and others to the American Bar Association Committee on Patent Office Affairs. There are present reports numbered 1 through 4 and a supplementary report of W. Houston Kenyon, Jr., Counsel to the Committee, 1946-47, as well as Economic Reports Numbers 1 and 2 of Victor Abramson for the Committee, 1947. 1 box.

U. Papers Relating to Social Education for Engineers, 1949-1951. In this file is found literature on the role of the scientist in public life such as Cooke's article, "The Habit of Community Service," in Mechanical Engineering, December 1947, and "The Role of the Engineer in Community Affairs," a speech by Cooke before the 58th annual meeting of the American Society for Engineering Education, at Seattle, June 21, 1950. Other material contains the correspondence of Cooke with college administrators and faculty regarding the student's role in community service, 1949; correspondence with publishers regarding proposed publication in a periodical of Cooke's article, "Do Engineering and Science Lack Social Understanding?"; and reactions of college teachers and administrators to Cooke's papers, "It's Time to Bridge the Technology-Political Chasm," and "The Role of the Engineer in Community Affairs," 1950-51. 2 boxes.
Cooke served as Chairman of the P.W.R.P.C., an agency established January 3, 1950 to organize over-all federal water policy. Associated with Cooke were Gilbert F. White, Paul S. Burgess, Lewis W. Jones, Samuel E. Morris, Leland Olds, and Roland R. Renne. The Commission reported its findings to President Truman on December 15, 1950. This file includes material on soil erosion and rainfall effects on soil; correspondence with federal agencies regarding water erosion practices in other parts of the world; correspondence with the T.V.A. about their experiments with crops and grass silage; material bearing on the controversy over the 160-acre limitation on irrigation projects; correspondence with President Truman and the Bureau of the Budget concerning release of the W. R. P. C. report and differences between it and the President's proposed legislation; a copy of the draft bill "Water Resources Act of 1951" which was designed to carry out some recommendations of the W.R.P.C.; drafts of legislation for a "Water Resources Policy Act of 1952"; independent opinions and other scientific papers by former members of the W.R.P.C., 1951; and reactions of federal agencies to the Commission's report and to its legislative recommendations. Other material includes the articles "Protecting the Land Against the Raindrop's Blast" in Scientific Monthly, Vol. LXVIII, No. 4, April 1949; a copy of "Water Pollution in the United States," a publication of the Public Health Service, F.S.A., 1951; the New York Times Magazine article, "Kansas Can't Forget 'The Flood'", September 2, 1951; and Cooke's paper, "Some Implications of Multiple Purpose River Planning and Development," given before the annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Philadelphia, December 27, 1951, as well as corollary material from the Department of
W. Speeches and Writings, 1910-1951. This file contains seven bound volumes, holding a collection of the speeches, articles, and books by Morris L. Cooke. All but the first volume contain a table of contents arranged under such topical headings as engineering, conservation, industry and labor, science, ethics, and rural electrification. Volume I contains items during the years 1913 to 1918 beginning with the article, "The Spirit and Social Significance of Scientific Management," in The Journal of Political Economy, Vol. 21, No. 6, June 1913. Vol. II covers the years 1918-29; Vol. III, 1915-35; Vol. IV, 1910-37; Vol. V, 1924-40; Vol. VI, 1922-44; and Vol. VII, 1918-51. There are nine boxes of materials containing printed speeches of Cooke, reading copies, drafts, articles for publication, correspondence regarding articles or speeches, and several undated items, all arranged chronologically, 1914-40. Another five boxes have materials relating to the book Organized Labor and Production by Morris L. Cooke and Philip Murray, published by Harpers in 1940. Included are drafts of chapters, correspondence concerning drafts and suggestions and correspondence about promoting the book. At the time, Murray was Chairman of the Steel Workers Organizing Committee and Vice President of the United Mine Workers of America. 14 boxes, 7 volumes.

X. Other materials include three boxes containing receipted bills, 1934-40; four boxes containing miscellaneous printed items, 1929-53; and a wooden box containing a card index file. This file appears to index items not in this collection. It contains a subscription list for an unnamed publication, 1917-18; two indexes to a library on technical matters (about 250 cards each); two address files; and an index to topics and persons involved in testimony regarding electric service in the Philadelphia area, probably in the 1920's. 7 boxes and 1 open wooden box.

Prepared at the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library
Hyde Park, N. Y. August, 1956

by
J. W. Deyo

A note on the Index:

General correspondence is listed by box number according to the original division of the papers - the years being indicated in parentheses.

Names of persons are listed alphabetically, followed by a number in parentheses where a numerical filing system has been used. The box numbers where correspondence may be found follow. For example:

Husselman, Roy (275) : 24, 80, 272

Where a person's name does not appear as a separate file in a particular box the correspondence may be found in the general file in the same box under the appropriate initials. Only in cases where there is a significant amount of correspondence has an index reference been made. In order to locate all of the correspondence with a given individual it is therefore wise to search all general files that are appropriate. In the case cited above, see also:

H General files in boxes: 172, 221, 103, 120, 128, 133 142-143, 155.
