THE PAPERS OF
DR. FRANCIS P. CORRIGAN, 1881-1961

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, on July 14, 1881, Francis Patrick Corrigan was graduated from Adelbert College in 1903, received an M.D. from Western Reserve University in 1906, and did advanced medical study in Vienna in 1910. Specializing in surgery, Dr. Corrigan became chief surgeon of the Chile Exploration Hospital in 1917, and did organization work for the American College of Surgeons in South America (1920-22). President Roosevelt appointed him Minister to El Salvador in 1934, to Panama in 1937, and Ambassador to Venezuela in 1939, a post he held until 1947. He was a United States delegate to the first World Health Organization meeting in 1948, and a member of the United States delegation to the United Nations in 1948 and 1949.

The papers are arranged into six series, as follows:

1. General Correspondence: This file contains copies of incoming and outgoing correspondence filed alphabetically by surname of correspondent and thereunder chronologically.
2. Family Correspondence: This file contains copies of incoming and outgoing exchanges between Dr. Corrigan and his family. Filed chronologically.
3. Subject File: Incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, memorabilia, maps, and printed material filed alphabetically by subject.
4. Speech and Article File: This file contains copies of speeches delivered by and articles written by Dr. Corrigan.
5. Financial Files: Bills, insurance papers, income tax statements, estate material and bank statements of Dr. Corrigan.
6. Printed Materials: Arranged by subject.
