

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Papers, 1920 - 1928

Accession Numbers: Ms. 48-21, Ms. 57-14, Ms. 60-23, Ms. 61-11

The papers were presented to the Library in July of 1947 by the estate of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Literary property rights have been donated to the United States Government.

Quantity: 5 linear feet (approximately 10,000 pages)

Restrictions: None

Related Material: Franklin D. Roosevelt Papers as Vice-Presidential Candidate, 1920; Franklin D. Roosevelt Papers Pertaining to the Campaign of 1924; Franklin D. Roosevelt Papers Pertaining to the Campaign of 1928. The Louis Howe Papers contain scattered items relating to this period.

The materials in this collection relate to Franklin D. Roosevelt's political activities in the Democratic Party from December 1920, after the Cox-Roosevelt defeat, to January 1928, when Roosevelt began his campaign to become Governor of New York. Not included in these papers are materials pertaining to the campaign to nominate Alfred E. Smith as the Democratic Presidential candidate in 1924, and business and personal papers relating to the Roosevelt Family.

The papers consist of incoming and outgoing correspondence, printed materials, and newspaper clippings relating to the Democratic Party. They are arranged in four series as follows:

General Correspondence (Containers 1-5). Incoming and outgoing correspondence arranged alphabetically by surname of correspondent. There are separate files for the Democratic National Committee and prominent party leaders. Undated or unidentified materials and platform and publicity materials are filed at the end of the series.

Replies to FDR's Circular Letter, December 1924 (Containers 5-6). Replies to Roosevelt's letter requesting comments on the status of the Democratic Party. Arranged alphabetically by States.

Dutchess County Political Affairs (Containers 6-7). Incoming and outgoing correspondence arranged alphabetically by surname of correspondent. There are separate files for the Democratic County Committee and prominent county Democrats.

Newspaper Clippings and Printed Material (Containers 8-12). Scrapbooks and unarranged clippings.
