Dear Grace:

Thanks so much for your kind telegram.

It is a particular joy to hear from someone like yourself who has rendered so much service so long and so well to the highest office of the land.

I am looking forward to the campaign and toward helping in an overwhelming mandate for our great President.

Sincerely,

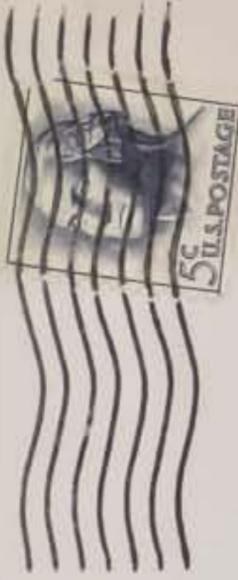

Hubert H. Humphrey

Dear Grace:

What a joy to receive your kind telegram.

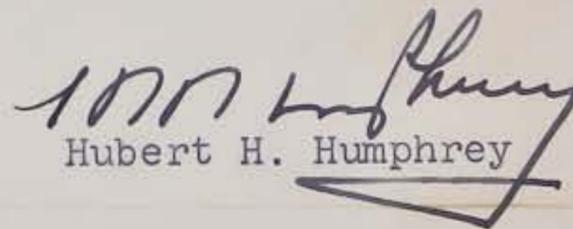

Here's hoping and expecting that the landslide of 1964 will lead, as did F.D.R.'s great victory in 1936, to a new and still more promising era for America and the world.

Now, we can build the Great Society - on the foundations F.D.R. so well laid.

Hope to see you real soon.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Hubert H. Humphrey

Dear Grace:

Hubert and I appreciated your wonderful letter following his recent hospitalization. He is making good progress in recovering from the surgery and is in excellent spirits. You were most kind and thoughtful to be in touch with us.

Sincerely,

Muriel
