Dear Paula:

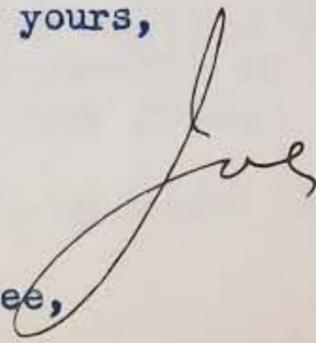

Thanks for the note regarding the book. I couldn't acknowledge it sooner because I have been away.

You bet I'll be delighted to autograph the book, and the next time I see you, I'm going to insist on collecting the hug that you sent.

Sincerely yours,

JPK/b

DEAR FATHER

I am writing you to tell you that I have just received your letter of the 10th and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I am very truly yours,
Joseph P. Kennedy

Dear Grace:

Your sweet telegram proved to me conclusively that I am getting old, because I immediately started to reminisce on the real fun we used to have at that house on the Potomac. All we had to think about, in those days, was a few light domestic problems. Now, you can't sit down and enjoy a meal unless you get into forty arguments as to what we are doing and where we are going.

Anyhow, be that as it may, my best to you and the family always.

Happy New Year to you.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph P. Kennedy

Dear Paula:

Thank you for your note of October 24.

I have written Harpo Marx that the photograph is on the way. He'll get all the comedians on the West Coast - I'm getting them here in the East.

Very sincerely yours,

JPK/b

Dear Grace:

Dear Paula:

I know that you will understand and pardon me for my delay in answering your letter of October 28 containing the stamps for Bobby, but as a matter of fact, I haven't answered a damn letter for three weeks.

Friday is Bobby's birthday and I am sending the stamps to him together with your letter to paste in his scrapbook. I know that he will get a big kick out of both.

Thanking you for being on the lookout for me and with warmest regards,

Very sincerely yours,

JPK/b

Dear Grace:

I suppose that the private secretary of the President of the United States has to be different than every other private secretary, but your kindness in sending along the clippings on young Joe previously and Lord Hartington this time touched me more than I can tell you. No matter how busy you are, you always find time to do so many nice things.

I also want to thank you for the signature and I have sent it along to Kathleen in England, telling her that perhaps some day we will get one on a White House card.

I could go on and thank you for all these things but I just want to say that Rose and I are most grateful.

With my best always,

As ever,

Miss Grace G. Tully

Dear Paula & Rollin:

All of the Kennedy family thank you both for your thoughtful wire of congratulations on Jack's election.

It was grand to hear from you after such a long time.

With kindest regards,

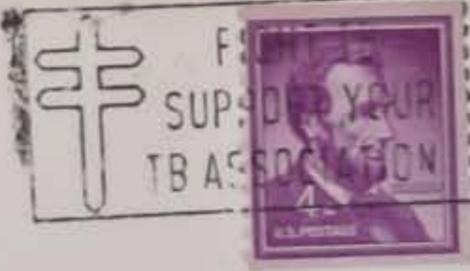

Sincerely yours,
