February 6, 1933.

Miss Grace G. Tully,
74 Elm Street,
Potsdam, New York.

My dear Miss Tully:

I am just in receipt of your letter of February 2nd. I am delighted to hear that you are getting a real rest and already feel much improved. I hope that you will continue to gain rapidly and that before long you will be entirely recovered.

Everything down here is running smoothly. I am kept tremendously busy but feeling well and enjoying the work. The household is running very well indeed and we are all comfortably settled there.

Both Mrs. Lehman and I miss you and wish that you were down here with us.

With kindest regards from Mrs. Lehman and myself, as well as from all the rest here in the office, I am

Very sincerely yours, getting back to work in Albany. This I hope to do in about ten days.

I have, of course, from time to time been hearing of your own progress. You should be sure to take very good care of yourself. Mrs. Lehman and I have been greatly pleased at the fine reports that have come to us about you. Please be assured that you have our sincere best wishes.

Miss Grace G. Tully,
The Vindobona,
Braddock Heights, Maryland.

My dear Miss Tully:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of last Friday and I want to thank you most heartily for your kind thought of me.

I have come along quite splendidly in these last couple of weeks and am feeling fit and fine now. I am down here at Atlantic City because the doctors thought it best for me to take a brief rest before getting back to work in Albany. This I hope to do in about ten days.

I have, of course, from time to time been hearing of your own progress. You should be sure to take very good care of yourself. Mrs. Lehman and I have been greatly pleased at the fine reports that have come to us about you. Please be assured that you have our sincere best wishes.
