Dear Grace:

Many thanks for your telegram of good wishes on my birthday. I was so busy at the United Nations I could do nothing about any celebration.

With every good wish, I am

Dear Grace:

Many thanks for the ash trays with Franklin's picture on them. It was very good of you to send them and to remember me at this time.

I am looking forward to seeing you at the ADA dinner.

Dear Grace:

How thoughtful of you to send me the pamphlet which I think is very good.

I wish I could have rearranged my schedule so as to attend the convention but I accepted two speaking dates months ago.

I am glad to be back home and I have enjoyed the summer days in Hyde Park. At the moment I am preparing to move into my apartment at 211 East 62nd Street where I will be as of September first. I know I am going to like it much better than the hotel.

I hope you will be in the city soon and that we can arrange to see each other.

Affectionately,

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I cannot tell you how deeply touched I was by your very kind letter, and your willingness to "go to bat" for me to obtain a position.

I am, indeed, fortunate to have such good friends as you and Lyndon Johnson. I am very happy in my new surroundings.

Averell, I know, would have been glad to find something for me in Albany if he had known I was interested. Frankly, I much prefer to stay in Washington. I have grown to love it since the days when you first brought me here.

It is nice to have Jimmy in the Congress. I have been in touch with his office but have not yet had a chance to visit with him but hope to soon.

We all miss Franklin. His defeat was a great blow to his many friends.

I know you must be well or you couldn't keep up such a terrific pace.

May you have continued good health in the New Year and many blessings for you and all the Roosevelts.

Much love,

Affectionately,

Grace G. Tully

Dear Grace:

Your letter was forwarded to me on a lecture trip and I was distressed to hear you were looking for a position. I was planning to write and ask if Averell Harriman could not help. But in the meantime I was delighted to see the announcement that you had been appointed executive assistant to Lyndon Johnson. This must certainly be a relief to you and I am happy that things have turned out in your favor.

I wish you every success in your new post and I shall look for news on your

Dear Grace:

Thank you so much for the Yardley Soap. You are indeed kind to remember me at Christmas and I am deeply grateful.

I had a very pleasant Christmas with most of the family at Hyde Park. You have probably heard that Anna is now living in Syracuse and it is a great pleasure to be able to see her more often.

During the holidays I slowed down a bit but on Sunday I start a round of lectures for Colston Leigh and later on for the American Association for the UN.

I will have hardly a moment to spare in January and February but I seem to thrive on hard work.

I was happy to read about the kind reception given to Senator Johnston on his return to active duty. I am glad he is feeling fit again.

My warm good wishes to you for every happiness in the New Year. I do hope it will bring us a chance to see each other occasionally.

Affectionately,

Franklin D. Roosevelt

How kind of you to send me such a nice wire! I appreciated your greeting but I was especially grateful for your thought.

My trip was interesting but I am very glad to be home. It depressed me to find that we are so complacent at home, however, while the Russians are taking every possible step to capture the loyalty of the uncommitted peoples of the world.

Sometime when I am in Washington I hope we can meet.

How dear of you to send me the soap at Christmas! I can always use such a gift and I am grateful for your thought in sending me something practical!

Christmas was a crowded time at Hyde Park but very happy. The only children with me were Franklin and Johnny. Anna had Sis and Van and Johnny Boettiger with her and Buzz and Ruth were down South where they had a most enjoyable holiday.

On New Year's Day I went to Warm Springs for the 20th Anniversary celebration, and I have just returned to find my desk piled high as usual!

I hope you had a wonderful Christmas and that the New Year will be filled
