February 23, 1932.

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Executive Mansion,
Albany, N. Y.

Dear Governor Roosevelt:

I am returning herewith the correspondence which you received from C. W. Jones in which I am taken for an awful fall.

There is nothing for you to do Governor, except reply and say that the matter is in my hands with full authority to handle.

I am also returning correspondence in which he agrees that the situation has been handled entirely satisfactory.

This fellow, in my judgment, is trying to hold us up for money and was disappointed when I did not fall for his scheme.

I think a brief acknowledgment such as I have attached hereto is all that is necessary.

Sincerely yours,

JAF:AC
