November 25, 1932.

My dear Admiral:-

hope much that I have ~~pleasure in tendering~~ you will the appointment as General Chairman of the might Inaugural Committee, which ~~body~~ is charged with the arrangements for the induction of the new Administration into office <sup>on</sup> March 3, 1933.

I would like you to ~~You are requested to~~ name the members of this Committee, to organize and select such sub-committees as in your judgment may be necessary to the Inauguration and to confer with such civic and military bodies as may desire to participate in the Inauguration.

The work will of course be in ~~You will, of course, cooperate~~ with the appropriate committees of the Congress named by the Vice President and the Speaker of the House to conduct the official ceremonies incident to the Inauguration.

With my warm regards,
~~Please believe me,~~

Very sincerely yours,

Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson,
Washington, D. C.
