

Tully Archive: FDR Papers

Franklin D. Roosevelt Library & Museum

Collection: Grace Tully Archive

Series: Franklin D. Roosevelt Papers

Box 12; Folder = Testamentary Instructions, 1945

Testamentary Instructions, 1945

W

file

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 9, 1945.

I request that certain personal articles be given in accordance with a personal memorandum left with these documents.

F.D.R.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 9, 1945.

In the event of my death, I wish to leave to Mrs. Winthrop Rutherford the original of Madame Shoumatoff's portrait of me, which is in my study at the White House.

F.D.R.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 9, 1945.

In the event of my death, I wish to leave to Miss Grace G. Tully the ship picture from my naval collection which hangs directly opposite Mrs. Roosevelt's picture, beside the fireplace.

F.D.R.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 9, 1945.

In the event of my death, I wish to leave to Mrs. Maurice Brady the John Paul Jones picture which hangs behind my desk in the Study at the White House.

F.D.R.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 9, 1945.

I request that certain personal articles be given in accordance with a personal memorandum left with these documents.

F.D.R.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 9, 1945.

In the event of my death, I wish to leave to Mrs. Winthrop
Rutherford the original of Madame Shoumatoff's portrait of me, which is in my study at the White House.

F.D.R.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 9, 1945.

In the event of my death, I wish to leave to Miss Grace G. Tully the ship picture from my naval collection which hangs directly opposite Mrs. Roosevelt's picture, beside the fireplace.

F.D.R.