Personal

Dear Miss Le Hand:

First, may I say that I shall always remember the dinner party at the Cummings home last Saturday evening as one of the most delightful evenings I have ever spent and I want you to know that this was due in no small degree to the pleasant company of my dinner partner. I say this in all sincerity.

I am indeed happy to send you Courtney Ryley Cooper's book, "Ten Thousand Public Enemies." Naturally, because of the subject matter treated upon in this book, it has meant a great deal to me, and I trust that you will find some things of interest in reading it.

I do hope you will find an opportunity in the near future to supplement "Ten Thousand Public Enemies" by fulfilling your promise to visit the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It will be a pleasure to me personally to be able to show you through the FBI headquarters, and if you will just let me know what time is convenient to you I will make the appropriate arrangements.

With expressions of my best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover
