

is the embodiment of human charity.

B >
It is a sobering thing to be a servant of this great cause. We try in our daily work to remember that the cause belongs not to us but to the people. The standard is not in the hands of ~~one man or of one party~~. you and me alone. It is carried by America. We seek daily to profit from experience, to learn to do better as our task proceeds.

Presidents do make mistakes,
Governments can err -- but the immortal Dante tells us ~~that~~ that divine justice weighs the sins of the cold-blooded and the sins of the warm-hearted in different scales.

Better the occasional faults of a government that lives in a spirit of charity than the consistent omissions of a government frozen in the ice of its own indifference. ff There is a mysterious cycle in human events. To some generations much is given. Of others much is expected. This generation of Americans has a rendezvous with destiny.

~~There are~~ there are some people
In this world of ours ~~some peoples~~ in other lands who in times past have lived and fought for freedom, and seem to have grown too weary to carry on the fight. They have sold their heritage of freedom for the illusion of a living. They have yielded their democracy.

I believe in my heart that only our success can stir
